Athlete Profile:

Born: March 6, 1977

After college and graduate school, both at Stanford University, John began his multisport pursuits. He competed in his first triathlon in the fall of 2002. John competes regionally, nationally, and internationally in mountain bike and road cycling races, marathons, duathlons, open water swims and triathlons of all distances. He has competed on TeamUSA in 2005 (Duathlon) and 2006 (Triathlon) and has competed in 5 World Championship events. When he is not training or competing, John is a Senior Engineer (Research and Development) at Evalve, Inc., a small medical device company developing a novel heart valve implant. John is supporting an FDA regulated clinical trial for minimally invasive heart valve repair.
